Description

For nearly 100 years, À l'Orée des champs has perpetuated, developed, and promoted the heritage of the family's land. Whether you choose a self-guided or guided tour, every detail has been carefully curated to offer a truly multi-sensory experience. The little farmhouse offers an interpretation trail that narrates the farm's rich history and provides an opportunity to interact with the lambs.

Your family can have fun and learn about the business through a digital activity. Make sure to check out the processing area showcase window, where you can observe the butcher at work and then enjoy some of the products made on-site. A picnic area and country table are also available to enjoy the bucolic setting.
