Description

Artisans and sculptors Francoise Lavoie and Scott Kingsland are the heart and soul of Atelier Paré, which they acquired and then transformed the place into a museum space highlighting and preserving an important artistic heritage. Discover traditional Quebec legends through the wood sculptures these two passionate artists bring to life. Here, the art of storytelling is restored to its full glory.

Atelier Paré is a space devoted to the history and work of master sculptor Alphonse Paré, the artist of Vatican 11 aspirations. It's also a place where you can watch and chat with the artists at work touch and feel the wood. Complete your journey into the heart of Quebec's lore with a garden tour featuring sculptures and legends and a wide variety of decorative wooden objects, including many linked to legends, beliefs and superstitions.
