Description

Délices du Lac-Saint-Jean is a family business that specializes in processing wild blueberries. It provides Québec with the iconic wild blueberry of Lac-Saint-Jean in a variety of artisanal products, each more succulent than the last. Délices du Lac-Saint-Jean prioritizes the wild blueberry in all aspects of production, from harvest to preparation. With a solid commitment to sustainable development, Délices du Lac-Saint-Jean follows responsible processing, management, marketing, and distribution methods that reflect its values of local production. The company is renowned for its creative use of this delicate fruit in producing jellies, jams, syrups, and other unique products while preserving its flavour and health benefits. Délices du Lac-Saint-Jean has relocated to new premises and is thrilled to offer an enhanced visitor experience. The new space features innovative additions such as an immersive entrance hatch, a unique tasting bar that doubles as a tricycle, indoor and outdoor play areas, and a completely revamped boutique that will be even harder to resist!
